BOUNDLESS June 10-12, 2016

Boundless III is right around the corner. If you know a young adult between the ages of 18 and 24, invite them to come. Give them the attached flyer. Pay their way! Let them stay in your cottage for free! If you would like to make sure they receive a personal hand-written invitation, send their name and address to Lisa Oviatt at koviatt@verizon.net and she will make sure they get one!

Here's some pertinent info:

-Our speaker this year is once again John Keller from Northgate FMC- hooray!

-We expanded to two nights last year, and we're continuing that this year. It gives us more time to explore God's Word and develop relationships.

-We're excited to welcome Justin Reynolds back to the team this year to lead music for us.

-Food is by PWT again this year... yum! We're having pizza & wings, wraps, and an all-you-can-eat pancake breakfast.

-We've narrowed our focus to 18-to-24-year-olds this year so that we can focus on more relevant issues and build deeper ties within this age group. If you're between 18 and 24, join us and bring your friends! If not, encourage the young adults in your life to spend the weekend making memories and drawing closer to God.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER:

LCC BOARD PRESIDENT MARK POGUE

When I got into work yesterday morning, the smell of spring was absolutely in the air: that clean, warm, soft smell of sunshine that Western New York has not seen in too many months. I got to thinking about all of the Lighthouse Christian Camp triggers that I have: the smell of the lake and the cool breeze that comes off of it this time of year, and the first time you walk into the tabernacle. I have no idea what it is, but the scent of it is like nothing anywhere else nor has it changed for 50 years. I found myself thinking about the friends that I miss in the off-season and looking forward to rekindling those relationships; looking forward to reactions to the new programming, facilities and staffing changes that we have been working on for months. I can't wait to be there with all of you.

I would like to suggest that to get the most out of camp this season, you should take a few minutes with your spouse and family to sit down and put in your calendar all of the activities that you want to enjoy with us this summer. I know that with my family, if it is not there it doesn't happen and we need to be diligent about scheduling our time or it evaporates on us. At a meeting with Jim and Lisa in late March I was shocked to find out that the LCC calendar was booked every weekend except 2, in addition to 4 weekends outside of our "normal season." So, I ask you also not to be selfish... Share your LCC experience with others. Share the camps, the programs, your cabin or camper and invite others to meet us and relax in God's presence.

See you soon!

Mark Pogue
President, LCC Board of Trustees

Tim Ford has an intense passion for God and heart for people. It is his desire to see God's people fall in love with their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ every day, and passionately live His message to the world.

Tim and his wife currently reside in Spencerport, NY with their daughters Brooklynne and Mercy. They have been blessed to serve God at First Bible Baptist Church for the past several years, where they have ministered to teens, college students, and young families alongside some of the finest Christian men and women there are. ## FAMILY CAMP

July 2-9, 2016

This year's Family Camp silent and live auctions will be here before we know it. The Live Auction will take place on Tuesday, July 5th. Remember, there are 2 ways to give to these events. The first is to bid on the auction items. Sharpen your pencils and start saving up now! The second is to find something to donate. Looking for that treasure to enter, whether it be something old or something new, is always part of the fun! If you are antiquing, in a gift shop, or hitting the yard sales or estate sales, don't forget to look for something for the auctions. If you are shopping and see a deal on kids toys, jewelry, kitchen items, tools, electronics etc. grab them and donate. If you are crafty we love homemade items (even if your best friend's cousin on their brother's side really made it). Gift baskets and items that are local to your hometown are wonderful too. Got a new goodie recipe? Whip some up and donate!

As always, there will be pizza and soda for sale. New this year is a kids' movie in an adjacent classroom so that the kids are near to you but having fun too! If you would like to start bringing items early, see Michelle Pogue over the Memorial Day Weekend. See you soon!

GETAWAY CAMP

August 6-12, 2016

Faith | Fellowship | Fire | Fasting & Prayer | Family | Fatherless | Failure

Morning worship, crafts, sports, and quiet time at the shores of Lake Ontario will give you the needed environment, rest and relaxation to soak in what God may want you to hear!

Ladies, be ready to be inspired and encouraged on Wednesday afternoon as Jill Farrell speaks about her experiences. End your week with family fun and fellowship Thursday night as we enjoy a pig roast luau! We will once again bid away our treasures in the annual GC Silent Auction. Anything goes from theme baskets to homemade items and gift certificates! Let's get creative!

WE NEED HELP

We are looking for a leader for the golf tournament for this year. We would like to continue the very successful golf tournament but as yet, have not asked the right person to take lead on the tournament. We have several helpers as well as office support but need someone to lead the charge with the organization of theme and prizes for both the hole and team contests. If you have any interest at all, please email Mark Pogue at markpogue@allstate.com or Jim Schumacher at jamesrschu@gmail.com. Thank you for your help on this important event at LCC.

FATHER'S DAY SERVICE

June 19th, 2016

Last year we celebrated Father's Day at LCC by interviewing a panel of dads in different stages of fathering. It was a touching time of sharing that ended up being a tear-jerker for everyone, including the dads! We have a similar panel to look forward to this year. If you want to celebrate Father's Day with your dad and need a memorable place to be, come to LCC! We'll have pastries and coffee at 9:30AM on the Tabernacle Patio before the service at 10:30.
